

Joereba Hall

July 20, 1935 - July 29, 2016

JoeReba Hall, 81, went home to be with the Lord on Friday, July 29th 2016.

JoeReba Hall was born on July 20, 1935 in Stockton, MD to the late Frederick Rowley and Lula Mae Spence-Hall. She attended school in the Stockton School District.

JoeReba started her family and moved to Pocomoke, MD where she spent the rest of her years. She worked as an in home care-giver for almost 30 years and loved to care for the people she served.

JoeReba loved the Lord. She gave her life to the Lord and had been serving the Lord for over 40 years. She would conduct prayer in her home 3 times a day faithfully and if you were there you knew it was time to give the Lord his time on bended knee.

JoeReba revered the Lord with every part of her day. Her daily regime consisted of worshipping the Lord through praise, writing scriptures and displaying them on the walls of her home and watching Praise The Lord on TBN channel. One of her favorite scriptures was Matthew 26:41 where it references to "Watch and Pray." Also JoeReba was known for telling children to "stay focused and don't get off key". If you asked her how she was doing, she would always say, "Thankful." Also fond memories that were shared by some of JoeReba's children were their weekly trips to the rest stops to have a meal at KFC.

JoeReba Hall leaves to cherish her memory her 5 children; sons, Ronald Lee Smith and Howard Smith; daughters, Sandra Smith (Spencer), Rudean Fletcher (Stephen), Tervon Fletcher Caldwell and her husband Anthony Caldwell; adopted twin sons Lawndele and Shawndele Fletcher; 1 brother-in-law, Calvin Dennis; 13 grandchildren; 34 great-grandchildren; 4 great-great grandchildren; nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.

Lovingly Submitted,

The Family
