

John Henry Baine Sr.

January 24, 1954 - January 29, 2020

John Henry Baine, 66, of Frankford, Delaware, departed this earthly place and entered into eternal rest on Wednesday, January 29, 2020, at Nanticoke Memorial Hospital, in Seaford, Delaware. He was born on Monday, January 25, 1953. John suffered a prolonged illness.

John had several nicknames, such as “Buster, “Daddy Cool”, “Froggie” and Brother Baine”

John received his education through the Worcester County Public School System and graduated from Snow Hill High School. He was employed by Townsend Poultry in Millsboro, Delaware, for many years. In addition, he drove the bus and once he was done with that, he went to Kent Sussex Industries, where he drove the van until he retired. John also worked at the Frankford Post Office. John served in the United States Army and received an honorable discharge.

John was a loving husband and a hard-working and devoted father. He loved his family dearly.

John was a member of Trinity Holiness Church, where Apostle Larry Morris and his lovely Prophetess, Beth Morris, preside. He was a deacon at the church. John really loved his church. He loved Jesus and praising God. When he was sick and you asked him how he was doing, he would say, "I'm still kicking by the help of the Lord."

John was a real people person. He was a jolly person who loved to cut up with different ones. He didn't meet any strangers; you couldn't help but to love him.

John was preceded in death by his wife, Clementine Baine; father, Alonzo Baine; and mother, Marie Baine-Tingle.

John leaves to cherish his memory, daughter, Jonnika Waters (Clifton) of Salisbury, MD; five sons, John Baine, Jr. (Cherdae) of Frankford, DE, Mark Baine of PA, Kennell Baine of Frankford, DE, Jai Baine of Atlanta, GA and Terrell Hint of Frankford, DE; 1st wife, Rose Baine; two sisters, Margie Brown and Anna Cannon of Seaford, DE; one brother, Alonzo Baine (Lorraine) of Horntown, VA; and a host of stepchildren; grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces; nephews, great nieces and friends.

“ From the day we first met John, you were more than a friend. You had a warm jolly heart just wanting to be loved and from that day forward we were inseparable spiritually. You were there for me and I was there for you through the years. You were there to listen when I needed you and to comfort me. You will never be forgotten and I will always love you. Rest now my friend, in the Lord. I miss you so very much.
