“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.

“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one. It is our hope that we can in some small way comfort you as we have been comforted by what the Bible reveals to us about all those who have died. God promises that one day his son, Jesus Christ is going to bring back to life all those who have died to enjoy life the way God purposed it to be back in the garden of Eden (John 5:28, 29; Genesis 1:27, 28). What a truly glorious day that will be! Until then may this sure hope give you some degree of comfort during this difficult time (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.
