

John Henry Brown Jr.

November 16, 1943 - June 10, 2018

John Henry Brown, son of the late John Henry Brown, Sr., and Gladys Mary Tilghman Brown, was born in Burrisville, Maryland on November 16, 1943, and departed this life on June 10, 2018, at Genesis-House of Pines in Easton, Maryland.

"Big John", as he was affectionately called, was educated at Kennard High School in Centreville, Maryland. During Big John's life, he was employed with Crownszilla-Gaylord Container in Delaware for more than 40 years. John used to love keeping his vehicles super spotless. In John's younger years, he loved playing cards, bowling, shooting pool, grilling at cookouts and playing horseshoes at family reunions. John is also known for his famous tuna casserole.

John was raised in a strong Christian home and was a member of Mt. Zion United Methodist Church, Burrisville, Maryland. As an adult he continued to attend and always gave his full support to the church. John also was formerly a Mason of the Thomas H. Kiah Lodge. In August 2007, Big John was baptized as one of Jehovah's Witnesses, where he remained until his death.

John is preceded in death by his parents, John Henry Brown and Gladys Mary Brown; two brothers, Floyd Brown and James Brown, two sisters, Rosa Chase and Betty Wilson; and a nephew Purnell Johnson.

John leaves to cherish his fond memories, his three lovely sisters, Sarah Deaton of Baltimore, MD, Adelena Brown of Centreville, MD and Verlena Wilson of North Carolina; a special niece that helped out and was by his side, Christina Bordley; a special friend, Leona, that checked on him and helped him with various tasks; and a host of other nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ "CONSOLATION"
"Earth hath no sorrows that Heaven cannot heal. "
As I softly repeat it, great comfort I feel.
And I long to reach out to those in the storm of sorrow's dark night
and point to the morn,
When joy will abound up there in the skies, as God gently wipes the tears from our eyes!
Oh, then we'll see clearly the face we adore and greet our dear loved ones who've gone on before. Gone every heartache that here we may feel; For " Earth hath no sorrows that Heaven can't heal."

“ “God's Heavenly Garden ”
Sometimes God picks the flower that is still in full bloom;
Sometimes the rosebud's chosen that we feel He's picked too soon.
Sometimes the flower is fading
with petals floating down,
But God knows the perfect time
To gather flowers from the ground.
There is a heavenly garden in which God takes great pleasure
Because He's placed within it
The loved ones that we treasure.
He walks among the blossoms
Giving them eternal rest,
And I know that it must please Him
Because He chose our very best.
Cherish the fond memories of your loved one.
Philippians 4 : 13
Prayers and Blessings to everyone!
