

John A Cain

July 31, 1926 - July 9, 2016

John Alvin Cain was born July 31, 1926 in Barclay, Maryland and passed away on Saturday, July 9, 2016 at Shore Health (Kent and Queen Anne's Hospital). He was 89 years old. He was the son of the late Carroll Cain and Pearl Hines-Cain and the eldest of four children.

Alvin, as everyone called him, was known for his swag and infectious laughter. He could definitely hold a conversation and loved talking to everyone. Alvin loved fishing, sports and was a huge fan of the Baltimore Orioles. He joined the U.S. Army in 1945 and was a retired Veteran of World War II. He worked for a furniture company in Baltimore and Dixon Valve for many years until he retired.

Alvin was preceded in death by his wife, Maxine Cain; his son, Wayne Cain, Sr.; his brother, James; his brother-in-law, Curtis Dorsey and one of his best friends from Baltimore.

He leaves to cherish his memory his two sons, Antonio Rogers (Worton) and Alvin Cain (Baltimore); his two sisters, Anna Mae Dorsey and Bessie Dickerson (James); his nephews, Larry Clark and Ronald Dickerson (Earlean); his nieces, Tina Robins (New Castle), Wanda Cain (Salisbury), Mildred Cain (Baltimore) and Margaret Cain (New Castle) and one aunt, Alice Winchester. He also leaves to cherish his memory seven grandchildren, nine great-grandchildren and one great-great grandchild; and a host of cousins, family and friends.
