

John Edward Hadrick

June 12, 1929 - April 9, 2021

John E. Hadrick, also known as “Whistle”, 91, of Grasonville, Maryland, received his wings on Friday, April 9, 2021, at home. He was born June 12, 1929, to the late John Hadrick and Elizabeth Hadrick. He attended public school in Queen Anne’s County, Maryland.

John served in the Army during the Korean War, returning home in 1952, and began working for R.B. Baker and Sons, and remained there for many years, until his retirement.

John enjoyed fishing and baseball. He was an avid Baltimore Orioles fan. He loved being with family and friends.

John was a member of Bryan’s United Methodist Church and a faithful contributor, until he moved to Bear, Delaware, as his health began to fail.

John was preceded in death by two special ladies in his life; Delores “Skippy” and Helen Mae and two brothers, Joseph Hadrick and Albert Hadrick.

John leaves to cherish his memories, two sons, Jeffrey Stinson (Elonya) and Raymond Stinson (Peggy); one daughter, Shirley Conyer (Marion); three special nephews, Milton Hadrick (Trina), Jonathan Hadrick and Joseph Hadrick, Jr.; niece, Florence Thomas; a cousin, Ernest Hadrick, Jr; and a host of grandchildren and great grandchildren.
