

John H. Loper

March 9, 1947 - December 1, 2015

John Henry Loper of Lincoln, Delaware, peacefully departed this life on Tuesday, December 1, 2015, surrounded by his loving family.

John was born on March 9, 1947 in Milford, Delaware to the late Elias Shockley Loper and Louise Powell-Loper.

He received his formal education through the Milford School System. John was employed by Tilcon Construction (formerly George & Lynch) for many years. He later became self-employed as a truck driver for more than 20 years.

John loved trucks. He also enjoyed motorcycle riding with his motorcycle buddies (even though he seemed to have spent more time on the ground than he did on his bike), watching wrestling, spending quality time with his grandchildren, going to bike and car shows, and hanging out at Deluxe and Royal Farms.

In addition to his parents, John was preceded in death by his brother, Eugene Parker, sister, Phyllis Loper and his son John Jennings.

He leaves to cherish his memory, his children; Evelyn Jennings, Curtis

Williams, Charlette Banks and her husband David, Antonio Woods and his wife Lakeesha, Earl Woods and his wife K'Keenya, Kushana Perry and her husband Wayne, Latasha Brown, Thomas Daniels and his wife Yolanda, Sandra Waters (whom John considered as his daughter) and her husband Ricky; his devoted friend Linda Schissler; 26 grandchildren, and a host of great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ So sorry to hear about the passing of Your love one John. I'm Praying that Gods peace and love will take you through this storm.

“ Extending deepest sympathy in this time of sorrow. Soon all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out (John 5:28,29). Until that blessed day, may many fond memories of John warm your heart.
