

John Henry Snead

July 15, 1950 - October 31, 2018

John Henry Snead, lovingly called “John Henry” by family and friends, was born on July 15, 1950, to the late James E. and Laura E. Snead, in Frankford, Delaware.

John attended Frankford Elementary School and William C. Jason Comprehensive High School (current site of Delaware Technical Community College). At an early age he joined the U. S. Army for a brief period. After returning to Millsboro, he worked in the Poultry Industry at Paramount, Mountaire and Townsends Poultry Plants. He later joined the Cheer Senior Center under a state funded program. When the program ended, he continued to volunteer until his health failed.

He accepted the Lord in February of this year before undergoing lung surgery at Beebe Hospital. The love of his life was his daughter, Shareta Spencer. He loved her, his granddaughter and great grandchildren. He spoke often of her and told everybody she was his heart. He also loved to joke and laugh. He had a name for all his nieces and nephews and he always called them by the name he chose. One of his favorite things to do was to watch game shows on television. He could give you answers on a lot of the questions as well. He had a favorite saying... “If you see me and a bear in the woods, help the bear don’t help me cause I’m the John Henry.”

He leaves to cherish his memory, daughter, Shareta Spencer; one granddaughter, Nakala Spencer; two great-grandsons, Kamron and Cuban Spencer; seven sisters, Gladys Colonna and Mary Bratten, (California), Laura Hopkins, Gloria Hatton (Welt), Esther Savage, Shirley Pettyjohn and Barbara Griffin; one brother, James Snead (Natasha); two aunts, Evelyn Hall and Jean Mumford; one uncle, Joseph Snead; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
