Obituary

Today we come together to celebrate the life of John Taylor. He was born on March 17, 1956 in Pulaski County, Georgia.

He was a laid back man who never complained. He was the second oldest of seven (7) children (all boys and one girl). He grew up in many small towns of Georgia, working on farms. His favorite thing to do when he was younger was picking pecans with his siblings and grandfather to be sold for ice cream every weekend.

In his twenties (20's), his family and he moved to Maryland's Eastern Shore (Log Cabin). Once arriving in Maryland, he got married (divorced), had children and became an amazing roofer.

John worked many years in roofing with Peninsula Roofing and Robert Hall Roofing. He was a very hard worker and loved what he did. His last days were spent spending time with his family.

Cherished memories will be treasured by: two sons, Corey Smith (Takeisha) and John Taylor; four grandchildren, John Taylor, Jr., Ciera Taylor, Corey Smith, Jr. and Kortney Smith; one great granddaughter, Alaiah Taylor and one on the way; a longtime companion, China; his siblings, Dorothy Dew, Raymond Dew, Hardy Taylor, Phillip Taylor, David Taylor, and Richard Taylor; one aunt, Sarah Taylor; numerous cousins and cousin with whom he shared a special bond, Claudia Whitney, as well as many nieces, nephews, friends and extended family.

He was preceded in death by his grandfather, C.L. Taylor, his brother Fred Taylor, his mother Mildred Taylor, his grandmother, Alice Taylor and his nephew, David Taylor.

Today we shed tear of joy for he is no longer in pain.
