“ I did not have the pleasure of ever meeting Little Jonathan or those loss during this tragic event; however, I find myself deeply, deeply saddened by their passing. I pray that Jesus will use all of His resources to comfort the family members and friends during this unbelievably difficult time. May the peace of God that surpasses all understanding be with you all. Please take comfort in the fact that heaven is now their home. To be absent from the body is to be face to face with the Lord.
