“ My beautiful baby sister... I'm still shocked and traumatized that you're gone way too soon however I am so blessed to have had a sister as admirable as you. All of these years I thought I was taking care of you and teaching you things that I knew but in turn you showed me how to not be bitter at the cruel world around us and still show others how to love without judgment. Especially while going through your own issues & had every reason in the world to be angry and bitter however it never showed on your face. You would always put your own feelings aside and care for someone else that was hurting and make sure that they felt loved. I am more honored today than ever to be ur sister and I'm so happy that i named my first born after you. You were a role model to all those that you came in contact with. Anyway, I know it took a little long to get you home and you'll never know how sorry I am for that (thanks 2 Delaware state laws) but I want you to know that wee fought very hard to make sure you came back to Jersey & be by mom. Give everybody a hug and a kiss for me in heaven 🙏 I love you so so much toots! I'll be seeing you 🥰 love ur older sister SWEET MELLISSA XO

Louise Meadows - April 03, 2022 at 11:43 PM

Thank you very much Aunt Louise, not only for bringing Joni back home but making sure that she knew you loved her -all the time & no matter what state she chose to live in at the time. You kept up with her just like a 2nd mother would & for that- I'm grateful! Ilu
