

Joseph David Anderson

September 7, 1965 - August 15, 2017

Joseph D. Anderson, age 61, was born in Washington, DC at Washington General Hospital. He lived at 917 East 17th Street, Wilmington, Delaware, but he was formerly of Harrington, Delaware. He died on August 15, 2017, while staying at Manor Care in Wilmington.

David was educated in the Lake Forest School District. He also attended POLYTECH, taking cooking classes. At 16 years old, he went to Job Corp, and while there, he learned masonry work, and assisted in building a library.

David lived in Wilmington, off and on for 20 years. He drove a school bus, a work truck, and he worked at the steel plant. In later years, he worked as a handyman. He loved to help his friends and neighbors.

David attended church under the leadership of Pastor Gino Jennings.

David loved to play chess, horse shoes and pool. He also loved to hang out with his friends and family.

David was preceded in death by his father, Thomas Carey, Sr., and a brother, Thomas Carey, Jr. He is survived by two children, D'Vana Younger of Wilmington, DE, and Anthony Deputy of Dover, DE; his mother, Mable D. Carey of Harrington, DE; two brothers, James E. Anderson of Frederica, DE and Samuel E. Carey of Harrington, DE; two sisters, Sandra D. Carey of Harrington, DE, and Tomesa Jones of Lincoln, DE; five grandchildren; and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews and friends.

“ I would like to offer my personal condolences to your family. I hope that you will be able find strength in God’s promise at Revelation 21:4 that soon: “he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.” You are in my thoughts and prayers and once more I am deeply sorry for your family’s loss.
