“ I had the pleasure of meeting Mr. Pierson a couple of years ago. He used to give me a hard time when he came into my place of business. But, later we came to understand each other. The best memory I have of him is when I told him I was going to buy him some boots. He looked at me and said are you really going to buy me boots I said yes I am. The next time I see you I will have them for you. When he came back I gave him the boots and he just smile and said can I give you a hug, I said yes you can. He said know one has ever did anything like that for me. I tried to help in him in any way that I could. I know he is in a better place now and he won't have to suffer anymore. My prayers go out to his family.
