

Josephine Sarah Hope

June 5, 1933 - February 15, 2013

Obituary

On February 15, 2013, the Lord dispatched the Angel of Mercy to Hartley Hall Nursing Home to relieve Josephine Hope of her pain and suffering.

Josephine Sarah Hope, 2nd of 15 children born to Floyd and Willie Wallop was born on June 5, 1933 in Horntown, Va. She was educated by the Accomack County School System, although she had little formal education.

Josephine met and married Willis D. Hope and moved to Pennsylvania, where she would raise her family. She believed that her children were the most precious gift she received from God. "Jo" as she was affectionately called, worked as a transport aid at the Bryn Mawr hospital for over 20 years until she returned home to care for her parents. Jo never stopped asking for “Willie” and “Pete”.

Josephine’s hobbies were shopping, spending time with family and “pulling the arm” at the slots.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Willie and Floyd Wallop; husband, Willis D. Hope; daughter, Shelly L. White; step-son Bruce Tull; three sisters, Ida, Eunice and Laura; and two brothers, James and Percy.

Left to cherish her memory is one son Willis D. Hope Jr. nine grandchildren, Hope K., Hope T., Pioria, Michel’le, Mercedes, Ajiana, David, James and Joseph; three sisters, Joyce, Jackie, and Teresa; five brothers, Grant, Floyd Richard, Dale and Lawrence; two uncles John and Charles Cannon; two aunts, Harriette Cannon and Annie Townsend; and a host of devoted nieces, nephews, in-laws, cousins and friends. She also leaves behind devoted nurses and staff at the Hartley Hall Nursing Home.

Tribute Wall

MJ

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I pray you will find comfort from the God of all comfort, Jehovah God.-II Corinthians 1:3,4. I hope you will find comfort in Jesus' promise of an earthly resurrection of all those who have fallen asleep in death. He tells us that with the power of God's holy spirit, he will resurrect and restore them back to life on the paradise earth, to live forever; reuniting families with their love one, what a wonderful blessing.- John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43; John 11:38-44.

Mattie Jones - February 21, 2013 at 12:00 AM