“ I am sorry for the passing of your Mom. I was the sitter with her from 3p.m. until she left the hospital. She was a strong lady and so are you her daughter. You did the right thing by your Mom and she is in a better place where there is not pain, no breathing problems. You will miss her but she is at peace and you should put your self at peace for doing the right thing by her and not extending her suffering here on earth. God Bless you and it was a pleasure to have known you. Fran

“ Please accept my condolence. My heart goes out to you in your time of sorrow. My favorite text says, “If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning.” (Job 14:14, 15).
