“ Please accept my condolence. My heart goes out to you in your time of sorrow. May you find comforting Job 14:14, 15, which says, “If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning.”

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy in the loss of your loved one. The bible speaks of a resurrection for those who have died. (John 5:28&29) We do have a chance to be reunited with our loved ones again at a time when there will be no more death, sickness or pain. (Revelation 21 ;3&4) Until then may your entire family be strengthened and blessed.

“ I am sorry to read of the passing of your loved one. Words don't always ease the pain when you are grieving the death of a loved one, but I hope you will find comfort in Jesus' promise of the resurrection hope(Acts 24:15)when he will raise up those who are now sleeping in death(John 11:11) restoring them back to life, on the renewed Paradise earth(John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43) what a wonderful blessing to look forward too. Until then, may GOD (Psalms 83:18) grant you peace and comfort during this grievous time.-Matthew 5:4.

“ I am truly sorry to hear of your great loss. Life is so fragile. God's word tells us: "...you are but a mist that appears for a little while and then disappears." James 4:14 However, Jesus said: "I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life;..." John 11:25 This assures us there is going to be a resurrection of many of those asleep in death. It is my hope that you will find it comforting to meditate on seeing your beloved one again right here one earth under perfect conditions, restored to her youthful, healthy self.
