

Josiah Louis-Dale Wallop

April 4, 1977 - August 19, 2021

Obituary

Josiah Louis-Dale Wallop born on April 4, 1977 in Nassawadox, Virginia to Mrs. Velda Katraina Ballard and Mr. Louis Dale Everette Wallop. He left the memory of his big smile and crazy laugh on Thursday, August 19, 2021 at Tidal Health Hospital.

Josiah was called “Joey” by close family and friends. He was loud, bold, and crazy and enjoyed telling jokes and making people laugh. He was a little on the wild side, but that is what people liked about him. Joey enjoyed listening to old school hip hop artists such as DMX and 2 PAC, watching his favorite show, Sanford and Son, and always talking about the “Redskins” on football Sundays. In his spare time, he also loved to go fishing.

Josiah leaves behind to celebrate the memories of his life through: his mother and father; his children, Adrianna Barrett, Melvin Tindley, Josiah Wallop, Jr., Xavier Kimbrough, Queen Wallop and King Wallop; brothers, Kirk, Louis and Jake, and sister, Angie; aunt Brenda, nieces, nephews, other relatives and close friends.

JOSIAH (Joey), you will always be in our hearts and we will keep your memories alive. We love you Josiah.

“ Sincere prayers sent to the family especially his siblings, and his children. Josiah was one of a kind and he lived by his own rules. Even though we were divorced, we had a special bond that not even death can break. I will always cherish his memory. Continued prayers of peace and comfort sent to his family!
