Joyce Ann Jackson, 58 of Dover, Delaware, formerly of Lakewood, New Jersey, was born to the late Gloria Laverne Jackson and the late Thomas Canada, Sr. on Monday, April 22, 1963, in Neptune, New Jersey. She left our presence on Saturday, February 12, 2022, after suffering from a long illness, at Bayhealth Medical Center at Kent General Hospital, Dover, Delaware.

After moving to Delaware, she worked as a childcare provider and was also employed at Boscov's Department Store and Goodwill Industries. She loved her family, music, watching television, the Dallas Cowboys, eating Maryland crabs, and most of all, crafting. In addition to her parents, Joyce was predeceased most recently by her cousin, Keith Lamonte Jackson; cousin, Armand Duval Allen; maternal grandparents, Elnora and Leroy Jackson, Sr.; and uncle, Leroy Jackson, Jr.

Joyce leaves behind to mourn her passing, her son, Tyron Jackson (Tasha) of Ellendale, DE; daughter, Nicole Jackson of Dover, DE; three sisters, Sharlette Powell (Caleb) of Wilmington, DE, Gloria Torres (José) of Camden, New Jersey and Selina Paulish (Bruce) of Dover, DE; her sister/cousin, Wanda Jackson of Houston, DE; two brothers, James Rowe, Jr. of New Brunswick, NJ and Thomas Canada, Jr. of Rochester, NY; long-time close friend whom she lived with, José "Flaco" Torres of Dover, DE; six grandchildren, Travonté Singletary of Milford, DE; Charles Young of Dover, DE, Tiara, Nathan, & Nichole of Ellendale, DE and Jay Ceon of Dover, DE; two aunts, Fanny Jackson-Diaz (Salvador) of Deltona, FL and Rosella Allen of Toms River, NJ; one uncle, Leonard Jackson of Tampa, FL; and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews and friends.

I remember the family, as at one time we were neighbors. "Let not your hear be troubled; ye believe is God believe also in me. And I If I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself, that where I am, there ye may be also". SAINT JOHN 14:1, ver: 3"
Knowing that God has prepare a place for Joyce, take comfort in knowing she is resting from the troubles of this world and has accepted the Great Invitation To Dine With Jesus Christ, She has accepted a Rest Much Needed, and A Reward Much Earned! May God Grant You Peace and Comfort as He wraps His Arms Around You During This Time.

Respectfully Submitted With Love; Missionary Vanessa Ingram
