“Sad to hear this news, condolences to his family and friends. I havent seen Judson since high school, but his pics show the same fun loving, charismatic guy we knew back then. Praying you find peace and comfort in our Lord, Jesus Christ, as you go through these difficult days.

“I am very sorry for your loss . Losing a loved one in death is such a difficult thing to experience . Please be comforted by the promises in the Bible . Jesus tells us at John 5 : 28 , 29 that all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out . What a loving provision put in place by the God of all comfort so we can have the assured hope of seeing our dead loved ones live again one day . Meanwhile as I pray for that day to come I ask Jehovah God to bless your family and give each of you the strength to endure this most trying time . For more Bible promises please visit jw.org .

“My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ There are no words to express my profound grief and sorrow. Spunk and I had a special relationship and I loved this man. Mattie and my husband would laugh at how Spunk and I would always greet each other no matter where we were. It wasn't about which of us was the loudest, because we were both loud when we saw each other. That was just our nature. Spunk had the soul of someone who had lived well beyond his years and he could alternate between being someone deeply full of wisdom and knowledge to being the class clown and the life of the party. No matter which persona he exemplified, I still loved this man. We are all leaning and depending on and trusting in God to see us through. Earth has no sorrow that Heaven cannot heal. Spunk was faithful over a few things, especially family, and God has now made him ruler over many. Rest Easy My Friend.

“ Juddy,

Hard to believe that you're gone. Seems like only yesterday that we were laughing, singing, and reminiscing about the good ole days when we were oh so innocent. As this weekend closes and you are laid to rest, we will keep your memory alive and perhaps we will learn from your signature song to appreciate every single day that we are here and pick up the phone every now and then just to tell someone we love them. My deepest sympathies go out to your family and as your friend, I commit these lyrics to your memory:

I Just Called to Say I Love You lyrics © Sony/ATV Music Publishing LLC

Songwriters: Stevie Wonder

*No New Year's Day to celebrate
No chocolate covered candy hearts to give away
No first of spring, no song to sing
In fact here's just another ordinary day
No April rain
No flowers bloom
No wedding Saturday within the month of June
But what it is, is something true
Made up of these three words that I must say to you
I just called to say I love you
I just called to say how much I care
I just called to say I love you
And I mean it from the bottom of my heart
No summer's high
No warm July
No harvest moon to light one tender August night
No autumn breeze
No falling leaves
Not even time for birds to fly to southern skies
No Libra sun
No Halloween*

*No giving thanks to all the Christmas joy you bring But what it is, though old so new
To fill your heart like no three words could ever do
I just called to say I love you
I just called to say how much I care, I do
I just called to say I love you
And I mean it from the bottom of my heart
Can we sing it one more time please
I just called to say I love you (I just called to say, I just called to say I love you)
I just called to say how much I care, I do (I just called to say, I just called to say I do)
I just called to say I love you (I just called to say, I just called to say I
love you)
And I mean it from the bottom of my heart, of my heart, I love you form the bottom of my heart*

I would like to offer my sincere condolences for your loss. In such difficult time, many families appreciate the comfort offered by the Bible of the time when no one will lose a loved one in death and we will be able to enjoy life again with Judson Thomas Fletcher our loved one. (Isaiah 41: 10). I hope these thoughts comfort you also.
