

Judy Mae Blocksom-Abbott

July 4, 1948 - May 12, 2017

Judy Mae Blocksom Abbott, born July 4, 1948, to Frederick and Viola Blocksom, peacefully transitioned to her heavenly home on Friday, May 12, 2017, while surrounded by her loving family. It was also on her birthday, in 1992, that she, married Gregory (Tony) Abbott.

Judy completed her education at Seaford Senior High School in Seaford, Delaware in 1966. She furthered her education at Delaware State (College) University in Dover, Delaware and later at Southern Illinois University in Edwardsville, Illinois.

Judy gave her life to Christ at an early age at East Clarence Street Church of God in Seaford, Delaware. God blessed Judy with the talent of singing at the age of five. Using it to the fullest, she traveled throughout the country as a member of the Gene Martin Trio, along with Gene and Richard Littlejohn. Judy was the ultimate people person, with a huge personality, who never met a stranger. Her sense of humor was unrivaled. That, along with her singing, often got her through her most difficult times.

Judy lived and worked in several states, always working in customer-related positions, from Farmers Insurance in Los Angeles, California to her last employment with BP in Alpharetta, Georgia. In 2012, she decided to come back home, moving to Victoria Meadows in Salisbury, Maryland. As her health began to decline, she then became “The Diva” resident at Genesis in Salisbury, Maryland, always entertaining everyone in word and song. She will be sorely missed by all who loved her so dearly.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by the following: sisters Marie Ingram and Betty Cannon, and brothers Otha, Harold, and William Blocksom. Left to cherish her loving memory are her husband, Gregory (Tony) Abbott – Georgetown, DE, her adopted son, Fontaine Nichols (Loretta) – Seaford, Delaware, her sisters: Doris Jenkins (William) – Seaford, DE, JoAnne Gibson – Dover, DE, Mary Burton (Nelson) – Dover, DE, Gail Weal (Timothy) – Seaford, DE, and Joyce Bowers – Dover, DE; her brother, Halvin Blocksom (Pauline) - Wilmington, DE, an aunt, Ruth Matthews; an uncle, Robert David Williams (Lola); an adopted Goddaughter, Tiffany Nichols; an adopted niece, Marva Gardner; a special niece, Tynetta Cannon; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Lovingly submitted,
The Family

“ My heartfelt condolences to Uncle Tony and the rest of Aunt Judy's family & friends. Although I write this in tears I know her soul was anchored in the LORD. Parting is such sweet sorrow, and this is a reality sandwich that's hard to bite, but we press on believing we'll all be together again in glory.

May the comfort, love, and peace that only GOD can give to every one of us be felt at this time.

Marva Gardner*

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ It has been many years since I have seen Judy. We were classmates in Seaford throughout Elementary and High School. Judy was always a fun person to be around, but very serious when it came to her belief in the Almighty. It is my prayer that she is in his loving arms now. Hopefully the family can remember all the good times they shared with Judy and these memories may help them through this period of sorrow.

“ over the past few years, Judy became a friend of mine- someone I was proud to call my friend, and honored to serve in my work capacity. Although we came from very different backgrounds and cultures, Judy and I were always able to find something to share or talk about. I'm going to miss seeing her everyday... but I know I'll see her again someday!

“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our belated condolences for the loss of your loved one (Proverbs 17:17). At difficult times like this we realize how precious and fragile life can surely be (James 4:14). As your family and friends comfort one another, as a neighbor please also be comforted by the sure hope the Bible gives us for all those who have died (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). As recorded in the Bible, Jesus promised that one day he was going to bring back to life all those who have died (John 5:28, 29). That is why he encourages all of us to exercise faith in that promise, the life that Jesus gave in our behalf, and be blessed as we see that promise fulfilled (John 11:25; 3:16; 6:40; James 2:17). The Bible makes it clear that death is an "enemy" not only to mankind, but also to Almighty God (1 Corinthians 15:26). That is also why God promises to remove forever all the pain, suffering, wickedness, and death that mankind has had to endure for thousands of years (Revelation 21:3-5; Psalm 37:10, 11, 29). At that time soon, as the Bible indicates, both the living and the dead who are brought back to life will enjoy life, everlasting life, as God originally purposed for this earth thousands of years ago in the Garden of Eden (Genesis 1:28; Jeremiah 29:11). What a glorious day that will be for mankind who are doing what God asks of us, namely that we simply do His Will, not our own (1 John 2:17; 5:3; Proverbs 3:5, 6). Please read and meditate on all these scriptures in your Bible and be comforted and blessed (Psalm 1:1-3; John 17:3). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy in the loss of your loved one. Words cannot express the hurt one feels when someone you love dies. I have recently loss two sisters and the pain and grief still lingers on. The bible has helped me to cope with the grief and pain. At Acts 24:15 it tells us that the dead will be resurrected. Also, Revelation 21:4 tells us that Almighty God will soon remove death, sickness and pain in the near future. I look forward to that time and so can you. Until then, may your entire family be comforted and blessed.
