

Judy May McCray

March 27, 1942 - January 12, 2019

Judy May McCray, 76, daughter of Benjamin Braxton and Edith Wells Braxton was born on March 27, 1942, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. She received her heavenly reward on January 12, 2019.

Judy was raised in Philadelphia, where she received her education at Overbrook High School. Judy held a variety of jobs including, most recently, a dietitian at The Boys & Girls Club in Oak Orchard, Delaware & a transporter for Glaxo Smith Kline in Philadelphia.

Judy joined Antioch A.M.E. Church in April 2004, under the pastoral leadership of Reverend Ernest Bell and was an active member. She was a faithful member of the Lucy Davis Missionary Society and served on the Kitchen Committee. She was also on the Senior Usher Board where she served faithfully until her health prevented her from attending church. In addition, Judy was a member of the Frankford Praying and Singing Band.

Judy was kind, loving and generous. She was a willing worker. Judy was plain spoken/outspoken; some would lovingly say she was “feisty.”

Judy’s favorite hymns were “At the Cross” and “I Must Tell Jesus.” Her favorite scripture was Matthew 6:6, “But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly.”

Preceding her in death, in addition to her parents, was her nephew, Grayling Craig and brother, George Braxton.

Judy leaves to cherish her memory, her husband, Tyrone McCray; two brothers-in-law, Robert Cortez and Julius Short; nieces & nephew, Annette Craig of Jacksonville, FL, Earl Braxton of Bowie, MD, Simone Braxton of Middletown, DE, Robin Braxton-Bell of Mullica Hill, NJ and Crystal Braxton of Middletown, DE; grand-nieces & nephews, Annette Gaskins, Lauren Braxton, Larry Gaskins, Jonathan Bell, Latika Vines and Nicholas Braxton; a special cousin and close friend Rosie Beckett; and a host of cousins, family members and friends.

“ To the family,My sincere condolences in the passing of Judy. Please note the words of John 5:28, 29: "Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus) voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, and those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment." Everyone (including Judy) will receive a resurrection. They will enjoy life eternal in Paradise. (Luke 23:43)

“ My condolences to the family on the loss of your loved one. Losing someone you love is truly difficult and I know Judy, will be truly missed. Please know our Heavenly Father holds out promises that can help us with our sorrow. One such promise is that death soon will be done away with forever (Revelation 21:4) and another promise is that "there is going to be a resurrection." (Acts 24:15). I pray these promises from God, who cannot lie, (Titus 1:2) brings you comfort. For more comfort from the Bible visit www . jw . org.

“ I'm so very sorry for your loss. I have no doubt that God will remember her and keep her memory safe. He will surely be glad to bring her back to life in a perfect world when suffering will be no more and we will all welcome back our loved ones that are asleep in death. (Revelation 21:4 & John 5:28, 29) May our loving Father bring your family the peace and comfort only He can provide.
