“ I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your loved one. It is very devastating to lose someone dear to us in death. I loss two of my sisters within one year, and I can relate to the kind of heartache you must be experiencing. I took comfort in the bible's hope of the resurrection at Acts 24:15, and I look forward to the time when the dead will be resurrected. You can have that same assurance. Until that time may your entire family be comforted and find peace.

“ To G-Ann's family,

May God comfort and Bless you all. May the memories of G-Ann's life and all that she met to you help you get through this difficult time. I'll cherish growing up on Miami Avenue and all the times our families shared. Just know that although we can't all be there, our family is sending special prayers up just for you all. In time, God will ease the pain.

“ To Mom Nettie and Family,
My tears are forming as I begin to write. It's so hard to say the right thing, but I want all of you to know that I send my sincere condolences. You'll were always like my other family, my home away from home and the memories we shared will never be forgotten. Julia was such a loving person and her infectious smile was everlasting. My heart is so heavy, but I know your hearts are even heavier. I wish there was one thing I could say or do to take the pain away, but I know in time God will ease all pain. One day at a time my family and God will see you through.

“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one. At difficult times like this we realize how precious and fragile life can surely be (James 4:14). As family and friends comfort one another, please also be comforted by the sure hope the Bible gives us for all those who have died (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). As recorded in the Bible, Jesus promised that one day he was going to bring back to life all those who have died (John 5:28, 29). That is why he encourages all of us to exercise faith in that promise and the life that he gave in our behalf, and be blessed as we see that promise fulfilled (John 11:25; 3:16). The Bible makes it clear that death is an "enemy" not only to mankind, but also to Almighty God (1 Corinthians 15:26). That is also why God promises to remove forever all the pain, suffering, wickedness, and death that mankind has had to endure for thousands of years (Revelation 21:3-5; Psalm 37:10,11,29). At that time soon, as the Bible indicates, both the living and the dead brought back to life will enjoy life, everlasting life, as God originally purposed for this earth thousands of years ago (Genesis 1:28; Jeremiah 29:11). What a glorious day that will be for mankind who are doing what God asks of us, namely that we simply do His Will, not our own (1 John 2:17; Proverbs 3:5,6). Please read and meditate on all these scriptures in your Bible and be blessed (Psalm 1:1-3; John 17:3). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

“ I am sorry for your loss, please accept my sincere condolences. I hope the family will find some comfort and strength in Jesus promise of the earthly resurrection(Acts 24:15)and the renewed Paradise earth, where death will be no more and no family will mourn the death of a loved one.-Revelation 21:3,4;John 5:28,29;Luke 23:43. may GOD(Psalms 83:18)grant you peace and comfort now, during this grievous time.-Matthew 5:4.
