“ To the Family: My family wants to express our sorrow for you. As a Mother my heart aches for you. It is difficult to even try to put words together for this heart wrenching time, knowing in times like these words can not even begin to touch our pain. You all are in our thoughts and prayers doing this time. (2 Corinthians 1:6)

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy in the loss of your loved one. Its so sad to lose anyone in death, especially one so very young who is just beginning his life. The bible tells us at John 5:28&29 that the dead will be resurrected. Also, please look forward to the time when death, tears, mourning and pain will be removed for good. (Revelation 21:3&4) Until that time may your entire family be comforted and blessed.

“ I am sorry to read of the untimely passing of your son, Juliun. He will be missed greatly. Death is never an easy thing to accept especially with someone so young and still had much life to live. Psalms 55:22 invites you to "Throw your burden (grief) on Jehovah (God) and he will sustain you." I sincerely invite your family to do so now as well as the difficult days ahead. Please take care.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ In this difficult time may the God of all comfort and his promises of the time when there will be no more death and we can again enjoy life with those we've lost bring you comfort. (Revelation 21:3, 4)

“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one. All of us have experienced the pain of death in some way sad to say. And, so, at difficult times like this we are confronted with the stark reality of how precious and fragile life can surely be (James 4:14). So, my wife and I send this condolence to you with the hope that we can in some small way comfort you as it has comforted us with what the Bible reveals to us about GOOD NEWS from Almighty God. Please be assured that we are in no way trying to impose our faith on you; but we sincerely just want to extend comfort to you during your grief (Proverbs 17:17).

As recorded in the Bible, God's only-begotten son, Jesus promises that one day he is personally going to bring back to life all those who have died, just as he did when he was on earth as a man (John 5:28, 29; 11:43, 44). Just as death is an enemy to us, it is also an enemy to God (1 Corinthians 15:26). For that reason, as well as others, He promises to remove FOREVER all the pain, suffering, wickedness, and DEATH that mankind has had to endure for thousands of years (Revelation 21:3-5; Psalm 37:10, 11, 29). What a glorious and almost unbelievable day that will be! It's a reality and a sure hope we can rely on because it is absolutely impossible for God to lie (Titus 1:2; Isaiah 55:10, 11).

It is our hope that you NOT take our word for what has been written in this condolence; but we encourage you to please take a moment to read and meditate on all these referenced scriptures in your own Bible (1 Timothy 4:15, 16). My wife and I are confident you will be encouraged and comforted by the marvelous hope God has in store for us (Psalm 1:1-3; John 17:3). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.
