

Julius Chandler Jr.

February 4, 1954 - March 31, 2013

Julius Chandler, Jr., affectionately known as “Juneboy”, was born on February 4, 1954 to the late Superintendent Elder Julius Chandler, Sr. and Doris L. Chandler of Allen, MD.

Julius graduated from James M. Bennett Sr. High School, class of 1973, where he excelled in football, track and wrestling. He also attended Salisbury State College.

At an early age, he became a member of solid Rock C.O.G.I.C., Delmar, DE where he sang with quartet groups and choirs. He was an experienced brick layer and welder for over 30 years. Julius was a member of the Allen Historical Society and a very active past member of the Thomas E. Polk, Sr. Chapter of the Buffalo Soldiers.

Julius was a loving husband and family man. He was known for his love of fishing, hunting and cooking. He was a true outdoorsman and he loved to travel. Whenever he was around, you knew it by his boisterous laughter, quick wit and charming personality. He was known for his many wise quotes. One of the family favorites was "Don't let it get out". He was also famous for wearing straw hats and no shoes. He was devoted to helping others whenever he was needed. No one could make a hummingbird cake like "Juneboy".

Julius leaves to cherish fond memories his wife Althea of nearly 20 years of Allen, MD; a daughter, Susan Chandler; two sons, Depre Maycock, Sr. (Telecia), Kevin Chandler, Sr. all of Salisbury, MD; a step son, Daniel R. Appleby of Ft. Lauderdale, FL; a sister, Paulette Walters of Saginaw, MI; three brothers, Jeffrey (Rachel) Polk of Shreveport, LA, Grady Chandler, Sr. of Delmar, MD and Mark Chandler of Baltimore, MD. He leaves behind 11 grandchildren; three uncles, Calvin (Mildred) Polk and Boyd Polk both of Salisbury, MD, Roger (Elaine) Polk of Fruitland, MD; a loving aunt, Iva Broken of Allen, MD; numerous beloved nieces, nephews, cousins and a host of friends. Three special life-long friends, Robert and John Cannon and Keith Bounds.

He was preceded in death by one son, Julius Chandler, III and a beloved sister, Portia "Maxine" Bishop
