

Kadeem Jamar Hill

April 16, 1990 - July 17, 2018

KaDeem Jamar Hill, was born on Monday, April 16, 1990, in Seaford, Delaware, to Sharon Hill and Mark Boyd. KaDeem passed away on Tuesday, July 17, 2018, in Milford, Delaware. KaDeem attended school in the Woodbridge School District, Bridgeville, Delaware. He graduated from Woodbridge High School on June 1, 2008. KaDeem worked in the food industry and management.

Who was KaDeem Hill? A son, a brother, a nephew, a cousin and friend to many. KaDeem loved his family. He often showed it with random calls, texts, visits and Facebook shout outs. KaDeem could talk for hours about his dreams to spoil his mom and give her the world. He recently expressed the dreams he had for his sister and himself, even giving them the name “Team Money Bags”. KaDeem loved spending time with his aunts, Vondy and Tussia, even if it were nothing more than telling jokes and stories. He appreciated the times he spent with his uncles, Bobby and Troy, and his cousin, Glenn, because he gained knowledge and wisdom. KaDeem could and would call his cousins, Vernon, Devvery, Tykie, Tykiesha, Twyla, Gavin, Dionne and Brock, to hang out, just to keep his family close. He enjoyed listening to music and cooking. He could make a mean Seven-up cake that became expected at all family events. KaDeem loved and had to have his, iced coffee. One of his favorite things to do was travel. He would jump in the car with his cousin, Day Day and keep her company on long road trips. KaDeem would also go out of his way to entertain all of his baby cousins by competing in video games, making multiple store trips for snacks, watching movies and playing games. They adored him.

KaDeem was a kind-hearted, outgoing, gentle person. His personality was witty. He could light up a room with his smile. His famous quotes, "Don't let that worry you!" "Awww, you so petty" and "Awww, that's so childish", will always live on.

KaDeem was preceded in death by his maternal grandmother, Mary Hill; maternal grandfather, William R.L. Hill Sr; paternal grandmother, Coralee Boyd Brogan; and his brother, Mark L. Smith.

KaDeem's spirit is carried on by his mother, Sharon M. Hill; father, Mark Boyd; younger sister, Joshalyn Hill; uncles , Robert Pinder (Linda), Troy Hill, William R.L. Hill , Jr. and Jeffrey Dickerson; aunts , Vonderlear Jackson, Tussia Hill, Cathy Polk and Nancy Boyd; great uncle, Lycurgus Bacon; a host of loving cousins, family and friends; and dear close friends, Sherri Farmer, Latonn Palmer, Jr. (Godson), Jakea Chandler, and Marilyn Chandler.

“My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.”

“And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.” Revelation 21:4
My sincere condolences to the Hill family and those who knew and loved KaDeem on the loss of your dear loved one.
The Bible promises at Acts 24:15 and John 5:28,29 of a resurrection, which is a sure hope of being reunited with our dead loved ones.

“ I would like to offer my condolences for your loss. I hope you will find comfort in knowing that Jehovah, the God of all comfort, will soon eliminate all grief and provide permanent consolation when “all those in the memorial tombs will hear [Christ’s] voice and come out”! (John 5:28, 29) God promises that “he will do away with death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.” (Isa. 25:8) Then, instead of having to “weep with those who weep,” all earth’s inhabitants will “rejoice with those who rejoice.”—Rom. 12:15.
