“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God \"will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.\"

“ To the family,
“For look! I am creating new heavens and a new earth.... No more will there be heard in her the sound of weeping or a cry of distress. No more will there be an infant from that place who lives but a few days, nor an old man who fails to live out his days.” (Isaiah 65:17, 20, 21) My sincere condolences in the passing of Kaleb. Soon there will come a time when there will be no more death. Paradise awaits Kaleb. (Luke 23:43)

“ You have my deepest sympathy for the loss of your precious son, Kaleb. While you are grieving, I hope you will find comfort from the Scriptures and the accounts about young children who passed away and restored back to life by the prophets, Elijah and Elisha (I Kings 17:8-24; II Kings 4:8-37) the apostle Paul (Acts 20:7-12) and Jesus Christ when he restored a young girl back to life, just imagine the parent's joy. And when he saw a funeral procession of the only son of a widow; he approached the bier, touched the young boy and restored him back to life. (Luke 7:11-15; Luke 8:49-56). Just imagine the joy when Jesus in the near future, resurrect and restore millions back to life on the renewed Paradise earth and you are reunited with your loved one. Until then, may GOD (Psalms 83:18) grant you peace and comfort now, during this time of sorrow. -John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43; Matthew 5:4.
