KAMRON'S LIFE AND LEGACY

It is with profound sadness that the devoted and loving family of Kamron Michael Lucas, Sr. better known as “Justin” by his family, shares with you that he passed away on October 15, 2022 at the age of thirty-four (34). Kamron was born in Salisbury, Maryland on October 12, 1988.

He attended Snow Hill High School in Snow Hill, Maryland and resided in Newark, Maryland. Kamron was a proud father of two, Little Kamron and Laura. He had a love for animals, specially for his dogs. Kamron was loved dearly by many. Those of us who were lucky to know “Justin” knew that his loving heart has left a beacon of light on us. His passionate spirit will continue to live on through his family and children. His bright smile and ability to make those around him laugh, will truly, truly be missed.

Kamron is lovingly remembered by: his two children, Kamron Lucas, Jr. and Laura Dennis; his mother, Beth Phillips; his bonus father, Vallee Stanley; his siblings, Kyle (Katie), Jordan, Bethany (Jay), Erica (Mark), Kaleb, Denay, Ariana, Darrian, Shauna (Joel), and Ashton; his grandparents, Alan and Diane Smith, Edward Phillips and Mary Davis, along with several nieces, nephews, cousins, other family members and friends.

Kamron was preceded in death by his bonus mom, Angela Lucas and his cousin, Kimberly Palmer.

“ Justin,
This is so hard to believe. I remember when you and your brothers were little boys fighting in Mom Mom Dusty's yard. Rest easy and sleep well Sweetheart. My love and prayers to the family.
