“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our belated condolences for the loss of your loved one (Proverbs 17:17). At difficult times like this we realize how precious and fragile life can surely be (James 4:14). As your family and friends comfort one another, as a neighbor please also be comforted by the sure hope the Bible gives us for all those who have died (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). As recorded in the Bible, Jesus promised that one day he was going to bring back to life all those who have died (John 5:28, 29). That is why he encourages all of us to exercise faith in that promise, the life that Jesus gave in our behalf, and be blessed as we see that promise fulfilled (John 11:25; 3:16; 6:40; James 2:17). The Bible makes it clear that death is an "enemy" not only to mankind, but also to Almighty God (1 Corinthians 15:26). That is also why God promises to remove forever all the pain, suffering, wickedness, and death that mankind has had to endure for thousands of years (Revelation 21:3-5; Psalm 37:10, 11, 29). At that time soon, as the Bible indicates, both the living and the dead who are brought back to life will enjoy life, everlasting life, as God originally purposed for this earth thousands of years ago in the Garden of Eden (Genesis 1:28; Jeremiah 29:11). What a glorious day that will be for mankind who are doing what God asks of us, namely that we simply do His Will, not our own (1 John 2:17; 5:3; Proverbs 3:5, 6). Please read and meditate on all these scriptures in your Bible and be comforted and blessed (Psalm 1:1-3; John 17:3). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

“ I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your loved one. We never get used to death because Almighty God did not create mankind to die. He created us to live forever. Due to the disobedience of Adam and Eve, we are all subjected to sin and death. But Almighty God has promised in His word the bible that He is going to remove death, sickness and pain in the near future. (Revelation 21:4) The bible also says that the dead will be resurrected. Please look forward to that time, and until then may the God of all comfort grant you peace.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. I haven't seen Karen for many years but I remember in high school she was a beautiful girl. I can still remember her pretty eyes that were always bright. He was friendly and always smiling. I will keep her family and friends in my thoughts. Sending you my deepest sympathy.

“ There are no words to describe how I feel at the loss of my cousin Cookie. She was and is a ball of sunshine in my childhood memories. She means so much to all of her loved ones and is going to be greatly missed by all of us. I take comfort in knowing she is now with my beloved Aunt Jane and her brother's and dad. To her children and grandchildren my thoughts are with you all.
