“ Shelley I was so sorry to hear of the passing of your Mother Katherine. I was not able to be there but my memories will last forever. I will always remember the good times when we laugh and played together. Our thoughts and prayers will always be with you and your family.

“ Please accept my condolence. My heart goes out to you in your time of sorrow. I hope you find comforting Job 14:14,15, which says, “If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning.”

“ To my beloved cousins (Shelly, Mike, Terry, Ricky, Kathy, Donna, Kim) - There's no way to fully understand the pain you're going through or how deeply you hurt right now. But there's one certain thing in all this; one thing more powerful than the sadness you feel God's love is here - to surround you, to strengthen you, to carry you. His love will pierce the darkest hour you walk through to bring hope, comfort, and rest to your soul. I'm praying for you as your heart heals. Your yubby yubby cousin (Cheryl Landis aka "Pete Summers")

“ In memory of my beloved Aunt Kat: There comes a time for all of us when we must say good-bye, but faith and hope and love and trust can never really die. Although the curtain falls at last, is that a cause to grieve? The future life is brighter still if only we believe. So trust in God's eternal care, and when the Master calls, we'll know a fairer world's beyond, although the curtain falls. All my love - Cheryl Landis (aka Pete Summers)

“ I am sorry for the passing of your loved one; please accept my deepest sympathy. While you are grieving, I hope you will find comfort in the resurrection hope(Acts 24:15)when the dead will be raised up and restored back to life, with the prospect of eternal life on the renewed Paradise earth.-John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43.
