

Kathy L Gattis (Fields)

August 10, 1958 - June 24, 2019

Celebrating the Life of Kathy L. Fields-Gattis Loved One

“I fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith”.

II Timothy 4:7

Kathy Fields-Gattis, a resident of Salisbury, MD, departed this life peaceably at home at the age of sixty (60), following a brief illness, on Monday, June 24, 2019. She was born to the late Grover Fields, Sr., and Gladys Tull-Fields in Bridgeton, New Jersey on August 10, 1958.

Kathy attended Gouldtown Elementary School, Bridgeton Junior/Senior High School and graduated from Bridgeton Senior High School in 1976.

Kathy also attended Delaware State University and graduated with her Bachelor of Science degree in Food & Nutritional Science in 1980. While attending college, Kathy met and married the love of her life, Claude Gattis, Sr., on July 10, 1981. From that glorious union, one son, the apple of their eye, Claude Gattis, Jr., better known as C.J., was born.

Kathy obtained a position as Patient Service Manager with Peninsula Regional Medical Center as a licensed Nutritionist and provided thirty (30) years of dedicated service. The staff was her second family.

She was a former member of St. James Free Methodist Church, later joining Mount Nebo United Methodist Church with her family, until her illness prevented her from attending. However, Kathy continued to hold on to her Faith In God.

In addition, to her parents, Kathy was predeceased by her sister, Darlene Fields-Bright and three brothers, Grover Fields, Jr. and Narry and Karry Fields.

She is survived by: her devoted husband, Claude Gattis, Sr.; one son, Claude Gattis, Jr., CJ; three precious grandsons, Nate, Quinn and Caiden Gattis, all of Salisbury, MD; two brothers Jerry (Gloria) Fields, Sr. of Vineland, NJ and Terry Fields, Sr., of Gouldtown, New Jersey. She also leaves to cherish her memories: one aunt, Ms. Eva Holden of New Church, VA; her mother-in-law, Addie Wilbekin of MD; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, brother-in-laws, sister-in-laws and friends and her three special, lifetime cousins, Karen Crocell-Waters, Rose Mary James and Prophet Dr. Gust D. Davis, Jr.

“ Kathy was a loving friend and she will be truly missed. To Claude and CJ remember that George and I are always here for you . Kathy and Claude have been there for me for over 23 years and I will never forget her and the love that she showed toward me. So rest in peace my friend until we meet again in heaven. Love always Faith Gattis

“ Man, no one knows when God is calling you, but I know he has plans for Kathy. In heaven, she will be happy and there will be no more pain and suffering. Just embrace all the memories that you two shared and one day you will be together again. I pray that God gives you and your family the strength to cope with this loss. Kathy and I shared many memories. We did a lot of laughing together and celebrated life often. She was a good person and I know she was loved by many. Bone, you hang in there. There are so many people supporting you. I\u2019ll always keep you and the family in my prayers. Priscilla
