

Katrina Ann Ledbetter-Potts

January 30, 1972 - February 9, 2019

Katrina Ann Ledbetter-Potts, was born on Sunday, January 30, 1972, to Yvonne Patterson-Ledbetter and Boyd Ledbetter, in Wilmington, Delaware. She was born again through the Holy Spirit in the 1990's and served God and his people faithfully until the Lord called her home. At the time of her birth, only God knew the number of lives she would touch, the effect she would have on those lives, or the number of hearts that would feel the impact when He called her to rest on Saturday, February 9, 2019.

Katrina graduated from Newark High School, and received her nursing certification through Delaware Technical & Community College. She pursued a career in serving the sick and elderly in their homes and then continued serving as a Patient Tech at Christiana Care Hospital, Newark, Delaware.

Katrina was devoted to her family and being with them made her heart joyful. This devotion was especially evident as a daughter often spending quality time with her mother, they both enjoyed shopping outings and traveling to church functions together. She often enjoyed being with her father who exposed her to singing the gospel for many years, remembering one of her favorite songs as a little girl "How I Learned to Live Holy". As a sister, she would always be excited to attend family reunions and picnics to eat crabs and to simply gather as a family. She never hesitated to call whenever she felt one of her siblings on her heart and would often check to see if all was well.

She became a mother on February 18, 1988, to her only child, whom she often lovingly called “Layshia Led”. They spoke daily, where she often poured out much eternal Godly wisdom, prayer and love through their conversations. They share a bond like no other, that through love transcends this earthly realm. To all her nieces and nephews she was known as 'Aunt Trina', and for them she was always within reach.

Katrina became a devoted wife to Lenard Potts on April 12, 2012. She often referred to him lovingly as “Minister Potts”. They enjoyed ministering together, to communities, locally and abroad, through anointed plays, skits and outreach events. Their oneness of heart was to reach the lost and win souls to Christ.

Katrina was known to her friends and all those that came in contact with her as faithful, positive, outspoken, forgiving, caring and the person to call on to get a prayer through. She had the spirit of an entrepreneur and started her own jewelry business named Gemstones from Glory, where she fashioned original pieces by her own hands. In her younger years she enjoyed cheerleading for the Southbridge Cowboys. She also served single moms through S.W.I.M (Single Women in Motherhood) in Delaware.

Katrina most enjoyed serving the Lord as a faithful member of Helping Hands Ministries and being with her spiritual family.

Katrina leaves to cherish her memory, her one child, Elijah Ledbetter; parents Boyd & Yvonne Ledbetter; five sisters Martina Jenkins, Nadine Henderson, Kizzy Johnson, Charlene Jones and Armetha Jones; three brothers, Boyd Ledbetter, Lloyd Ledbetter and Boyd Ellington. In addition, she is survived by her husband, Minister Lenard Potts; stepson, Devon Stovall; Minister Potts' daughters, Nashawn and Michele Lloyd; father-in-law, Rev. William Potts; sisters-in-law, Cyntoria Potts, Trene Duker, Faith Kelly & Connie Potts; brother-in-law, Billy Potts; best friends, Evangelists Ronald and Karen Cole; sister-friend, Nicole Tatuem; and four god-children; and a host of nieces & nephews along with spiritual family & friends. She was preceded in death by siblings Jeremiah Jones, Pearl Dickerson and Cory Dickerson. Countless lives have been impacted by her love, tenacity, joy and spiritual strength, for we know to be absent from the body she is present with the Lord!

Lovingly Submitted by the Family

Tribute Wall

AR

“ Dear family, I express my deepest sympathy for the loss of your dear loved one and I know it\u2019s so difficult to bear. But know that your heavenly Father understands your pain and He cares. He extends a hope to each and everyone and that hope is that you will see your loved one again. John 5:28, 29; Isaiah 25:8a

Artina - March 09, 2019 at 03:14 PM

JE

“ >Please accept my heartfelt condolences for the loss of your loved one. Take comfort in knowing that soon all those in the memorial tombs or grave will be resurrected or raised up back to life in conditions free from sickness and death (John 5:28,29; Revelation 21:4).

Jess - February 27, 2019 at 01:15 PM

JO

“ Dear Family, Grief can be so hard at times, but our cherished memories of Katrina Ann Ledbetter Potts can help us to cope. Hold tight to those memories. Lean on each other for support. And may you find comfort in God\u2019s promise at (Revelation 21:4).

JoyceA - February 20, 2019 at 10:58 AM

IR

“ Sorry for the passing of your love one. Read Psalms 46:1 for words of comfort and peace.

Irene - February 18, 2019 at 02:35 PM

SR

“ There is so much sorrow in the world. But the death of our loved ones brings the deepest sorrow of all. May God's promise to help you through this difficult time bring you peace, (Isaiah 41:10) and his promise for the future (John 5:28, 29) give you a wonderful hope.

SR - February 18, 2019 at 01:34 PM

HF

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on God's promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

H. Fields - February 17, 2019 at 08:20 AM

CB

“ Yvonne , Pop and Siblings I'm sorry to hear of Trina's (as she was called) passing. Whatever it was, believe she turned it over to Jesus. I know your heart is heavy right now, but Praise Him any how. Know that she is present with the Lord now.

Carolyn Barksdale - February 14, 2019 at 05:18 PM