“ Hey sister it's the day before your MURDERS plea hearing. I have decided not to attend. We know the justice system and there will never be justice in your case and am sure you see what's going on. I feel your spirit and I know you are unable to rest and for that am sorry you know I love you and thank you for always being there for me. I pray one day that you are able to rest in paradise.

“ TIME

*Our time ran out before we knew,
Tragically, Fate had other plans for you.
This wasn't planned, it's true,
Yet wishful thoughts still linger too.*

*I wander here the world seems vast,
With echoes of our childhood past.
Your laughter, warmth and gentle voice,
Are memories I cherish much.*

*In my dreams, I feel you close once more,
Though now I walk a distant shore.
Our moments brief but pure and bright,
Illuminate my darkest night.*

*Though our paths diverged and took you far.
Our bond endues beyond the pain,
In my heart and soul you will always

“ Time Out Tap & Grill is where I first saw you (Kelly being Kelly) singing, dancing, drinking and having fun. You were so Hott you scared me a little (I was nervous on my approach). At the end of the night in a round about way I gave you my number but it didn't really matter, you jumped straight into the jimmy with Eric and I, and off to Roslyn Manor is where we went. The very next day we took the S15 and picked up your stuff (you were moving in). A little fast I know but something was different, you were different, I had this feeling when I'm around you and I couldn't seem to get you out of my head. I remember thinking oh shit is this that dreaded “L” word thing??? now I was scared, I barely knew your name, and nothing about you really but we were living together. You told me to chill “Live A Little”, and we kept on going. Days turned into weeks, weeks turned into months and then years (off and on). You were so wild (I loved that about you) and I knew we were on different paths but I was so in love with you it scared me (I couldn't see life without you). I was hoping to slow you down just a little without changing who you were so I put a ring on your finger (I was so nervous that day thinking that you would just throw it in my face). Kelly Renee Ogle' Carr would never come to be, career choices were made and life happened. We would share an occasional text, call or rare visit but 20 years passed. These last few days have been filled with a whole host of emotions and memories (you seemed to love our short walks on Assateague and watching the sunrise on the Cambridge pier), the what if's, I can't answer those questions but the one thing I do know is that I love you Kelly Renee Ogle, always have!

“ Sis you surely lived and did life on your own terms. Everyone that you ever met instantly became a friend and those then turned into family. I just hope that you knew how much people loved you and you will be greatly missed. One day we will be reunited and look forward to that day. Until then watch over us and fly free.

“ *Constantly thinking,
never to be the same.
The tears fall quickly
just hearing your name.*

*Silence is golden,
yet not anymore.
Silence brings thoughts
I just can't ignore.*

*The nights are sleepless, dreams out of reach.
Crying in my pillow
to you I beseech.*

*I still feel alone.
My heart is so empty.
This pain I must own.*

*I wish I could hug you and just see your face.
But now I have memories to stand in your place.*

*Gone but not forgotten,
that's what they say.
Of course that is true...
but if only you could have*
