

Kendrice Jammarr Savage

April 7, 1988 - November 22, 2020

The Life

Kendrice Jammarr Savage was born April 7, 1988 and left this world on November 22, 2020 unexpectedly in Salisbury, MD. KJ as he was affectionately known, was a true man of valor. With his huge heart, respect for everyone around him, and that heartwarming and infectious smile that would simply light up the room and everybody in it, KJ was a very composed young man who always tried to keep the peace in every situation. KJ wanted to wait for the perfect time to have children, and for the past ten months his son, Kendrice Jr., little KJ, was the apple of his eye.

KJ was educated at Buckingham Elementary, Bennett Middle and both Bennett Senior and Wicomico High Schools where he was a part of the Basketball team's divisional championship in 2006. Growing up, KJ played football and basketball for the Salvation Army Youth Club, as well as AAU travel basketball. And if you really knew KJ, you knew he was a huge Philadelphia Eagles Fan.

KJ was a very hard working man. At the age of 14 he was employed at Happy Jacks Pancake House in Ocean City MD, where the owners couldn't wait from season to season to re-hire him for the next summer. As an adult he began working at Mountaire in 2009 and remained til his early demise, where he gained the love and respect of his employer, colleagues, and friends alike.

KJ leaves behind to cherish and love his memory his one and only, Kendrice Jammarr Savage, Jr., his mother Inez Barnes and her fiancée James C Savage, Jr., his mother Inez Barnes and her fiancée James Collick, his father Jeron Kevin Mitchell, Sr. and his wife Yolanda Mitchell, 3 brothers, Jeron Kevin Mitchell, Jr., Laron Devin Mitchell and Kevin Mitchell II and 1 sister Rodnica Cannon, and his Grandmother Josephine Barnes and Grandfather Herschel Vick. There are also 7 nieces, 4 nephews, and his God Mother Thomasine Taylor. And most importantly, the Mother of his son Erica Duffy. Also left to mourn his memory is a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, friends and colleagues.

He is proceeded in death by his great grandmothers, Carrie Mumford and Ida West, and his grandmothers, Deloris Vick and Betty Mitchell.

Sorrowful Submitted by
The Entire Family of Kendrice J. Savage
Simply known as.....

KJ

Tribute Wall

“ So many memories, not enough time. We will always remember you through your son. Rest In Paradise ”

Malisa Duffy and Family - December 08, 2020 at 12:04 PM