Life's Reflections

Kenneth Mark Walker, Sr., a resident of Salisbury, Maryland, was born on December 23, 1955 in Accomack County, Virginia to the late James C. Walker and Sadie Mae Newkirk. Reared by his aunt, Jeanette Mitchell, Kenneth received his early education from the Wicomico County public school system. He graduated in 1975 from Wicomico High School in Salisbury, Maryland.

As a child Kenneth was very mischievous, a real comedian. He once had his younger sisters looking for money in a hole that he had dug, and to their surprise they found chicken intestines. He was very athletic and enjoyed playing soccer and basketball. His love for basketball and abilities on the court earned him the nickname "Chet" after NBA player Chester Walker.

"Chet" was a true staple on the westside of Salisbury's community. He was loved and respected by everyone whom he encountered. He accepted and reciprocated the love that was given. Chet was the true definition of "A FRIEND UNTIL THE END."

At the time of his passing, "Chet" was employed as a freelance landscaper, and took pride in his work. He was also employed at Price Check Convenience Store in Salisbury, Maryland. Chet would also perform odd jobs around the Salisbury area. He was previously employed with Salisbury Recycling Company, Campbell Soup and Purity Bacon, all located in Salisbury Maryland.
