KENNETH LAMONT TAYLOR'S LIFE...

I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help; my help cometh from the Lord which made heaven and earth.

Psalm 121:1-2

Kenneth Lamont Taylor, at the age of sixty-six (66), peacefully fell asleep at Genesis Health Care on Friday, July 2, 2021. A band of angels extolled, "All Is Well With My Soul." Take your rest, good and faithful soldier of Christ; your work on earth is complete. Kenneth was born on September 10, 1954 to the late Marion and Sondonia Taylor in Snow Hill, Maryland. He was the fifth child of eight children.

He was a product of the Wicomico County school system. Shortly after graduation, he joined the United States Army. After serving several years, Kenneth received an honorable discharge. His love for agriculture caused him to work surrounding farmlands. Even though he loved working the farmlands, he taught himself to renovate homes.

Kenneth, lovingly referred to as Kebo, loved his family and friends. He especially enjoyed and found entertainment in playing cards, shooting pool and watching westerns on television. Kebo would plainly speak his mind regardless of who you were. He honestly believed “if he could help somebody as he traveled along”, then his living would not have been in vain. Coming from a loving family, he was a wonderful father, uncle, grandfather and cousin.

Kenneth Lamont Taylor leaves to cherish fond and precious memories: one son, Andrew Jackson of Silver Spring, Maryland; three sisters, Shirley Sanders and Linda Taylor, both of Salisbury, Maryland and Vivian Lawrence of Bear, Delaware; two brothers, Silvester Taylor (Gabby) of Leesburg, Virginia and Barry Taylor (Peguine) of Brandywine, Maryland and one granddaughter, Ny’Jai Jackson of Texas. His eternal spirit will be remembered by a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Marion and Sodonia Taylor and two brothers, Clinton Fisher and Marion Taylor.
