“ *To the family:
Even though I may not be there with you in this time know that I am with you. I will always be there for you it is never easy to loose someone we all love and cherish but we always know that God has a plan. I am praying for you daily and I will be there soon I love you always Buttons.*

“ *Dear Family,
I would like to send my condolences. It can be extremely difficult to lose a loved one. That is why I wanted to share the hope found in the bible, the hope of the resurrection. Jesus stated at John 5:28,29 "The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will come out." And at Revelation 21:3,4 it states that there will be a time when "...death will be no more." These scriptures give us hope for the future as respects to our dead loved ones. Those scriptures have brought comfort to me and I hope it does the same for your family.
With Love,
Loren*

“ I am sorry for your loss; please accept my deepest sympathy. While you are grieving your loss, I hope you will find comfort in Jesus' promise of the earthly resurrection(Acts 24:15)when all those sleeping in death(John 11:11-14)will be raised up and restored back to life, on the renewed Paradise earth.-John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43.

“ Please accept my condolence. My heart goes out to you in your time of sorrow. I find comforting Job 14:14,15, which says, “If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning.”
