

Kevin James Cannon

December 14, 1973 - August 29, 2020

Obituary

On Saturday August 29, 2020, our beloved Kevin James Cannon, Sr. departed this life at his home in New Church, Virginia at the age of forty-seven (47). Born on December 14, 1973, he was the son of the late Clyde Snowden and Fredia Cannon.

Raised by his aunt, Barbara Whittaker, who resides in Crisfield, Maryland, Kevin was educated in Accomack County schools. He was a roofer for Richard Coverings Company in New Church, Virginia.

He was a dedicated father who loved taking care of his children and spending precious time with them. He also enjoyed hanging out with his friends and family at any given time.

Kevin leaves to cherish precious memories: four (4) children, Kevion Watson of Accomack County, Virginia, Kevin Cannon, Jr. of Princess Anne, Maryland Kamel Cannon And Kamiya Cannon Princess Anne, Maryland; fifteen (15) siblings, Larry Cannon (Debbie) of Colorado Springs, Colorado, Angie Cannon of Princes George County, Maryland, Michael, Shelly and Lakisha Cannon, all of Crisfield, Maryland, Ashley Cannon of Baltimore County, Maryland, Tammy Cannon of Cambridge, Maryland, LeWanda White of Salisbury, Maryland, Alona Snowden of Concord, North Carolina, Robin Henderson of Glen Bernie, Maryland, Sandy Collins of Princess Anne, Maryland and Wade Hampton of Wilmington, Delaware; five grandchildren, Mar'Quila Watson, Kaiden Watson, Aiyana Savage, Ki'Aire Watson and Kade Watson, all of Accomack County, Virginia; three aunts, Barbara Whittaker of Crisfield Maryland and Natalie Whittaker and Beverly Whittaker, both Princess Anne, Maryland; two uncles, Terry Whittaker (Iva) of Crisfield, Maryland and Claude Whittaker (Kyia) of Seaford, Delaware; six cousins, Antonio Whittaker of Seaford, Delaware, Shanitra Whittaker of Pocomoke City, Maryland, Latoya Whittaker of Princess Anne, Maryland, Sharita Cannon of South Carolina and Breon Harris "GG" and Keyon Handy, both of Princess Anne, Maryland and a host of nephews, nieces, great nephews, great nieces, cousins and friends. He was preceded in death by his father, Clyde Snowden and mother, Fredia Cannon, grandfather, Andrew Whittaker and grandmother, Rebecca Whittaker, brother, Clyde Johnson and sister, Annshanette Snowden.

Lovingly Submitted ~ The Family