

Kevin E. Fisher

September 23, 1963 - September 22, 2014

Kevin Elwood Fisher was born on Sunday, September 23, 1962 to George Gray and Gloria Jean Baynard. He peacefully transitioned to glory from a battle with cancer on Monday, September 22, 2014 at his home in Bridgeville, DE.

With the compassionate care from his mother, grandparents and other family members, Kevin surpassed every barrier doctors placed before him and lived every day as a miracle, warming the hearts of everyone he encountered.

Kevin attended Howard T. Ennis School in Georgetown, DE, until the age of 21, where he received functional academic and prevocational instruction.

In 2004, Kevin began attending a day program at Easter Seals where he was able to make social connections and further his fundamental learning. He fervently enjoyed attending the program. Kevin faithfully attended Mt. Calvary U.M. Church with his mother.

In his spare time, Kevin enjoyed singing the Isley Brother's song "Drifting on a Memory", with a very dear cousin, Sherray; collecting an assortment of watches and cell phones; watching television shows such as: Bonanza, The Rifleman and CHIPS, to name a few; sneaking snacks and spending time with his great-nephew, Jae'Don; and of course, bribing everyone he came in contact with for candy, cookies, or ice cream that he wasn't supposed to have. Kevin was preceded in death by both maternal grandparents, Glendora and Clifton Jackson, 1983 and 2006, respectively.

He leaves to cherish his memories his mother, Gloria "Peggy" Baynard of Bridgeville, DE; one brother, Reggie Fisher of Bridgeville, DE; one sister, Barbie Banks (Wayne) of Laurel, DE; one nephew, Sheldon Fisher (Nicole) of Laurel, DE; two nieces, Candace Banks of Millsboro, DE and Faith Banks of Milton, DE; one great-nephew, Jae'Don Makoa of Millsboro, DE; one special uncle, Charles "Butch" Johnson (Teresa) of Lincoln, DE; a special aunt, Thelma Gould of Philadelphia, PA; a special cousin, Sherray McDonald (Henry) of Philadelphia, PA; as well as a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

“ I would like to extend my deepest sympathies to your family. I know the pain of losing a dear loved one also. I would like to please share a few scriptures with you that have brought me comfort during these times. Rev 21:4- "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.”

Also please remember to throw your burdens on Jehovah (Psalms 55:22) Because he is the God of all comfort (2 Corinthians 1:3 & 4)

You will be in my prayers.

If you would like to learn more from the Bible about why we die or what happens to our loved ones that have passed away please feel free visit jw.org to find some very satisfying answer.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for the passing of your loved one. May it comfort your heart to know that God has promised: "many of those asleep in the dust of the earth will wake up." Daniel 12:2 This will mean a reuniting with our dead loved ones right here on earth under the best of conditions. During that time, "No resident will say I am sick." Isaiah 33:25 "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Rev. 21:4
