

Kevin L. Gibbs

November 5, 1960 - March 31, 2013

Kevin Lamont Gibbs (Peewee) was born on November 5, 1960 to the late Cynthia Y. Kilgo and Macon Gibbs and was raised by the late L. Sylvester Kilgo (step-father). He passed away at home on Easter Sunday, March 31, 2013.

Kevin received his education in the Seaford School District. After graduating from high school, he then enlisted in the United States Marines Corps and served his country from 1978-1982 with an honorable discharge. Kevin returned from the military and was employed by Perdue for 17 years. Kevin later moved and resided in North East, Maryland and was employed at the Department of Veterans Affairs for Virginia and Maryland Healthcare Systems, where he was a cook in the canteen and loved by many.

Kevin was a loving man with an open heart and would help anyone. Kevin loved to make people laugh by telling his jokes and they weren't always clean. He enjoyed being the life of the center of attraction while being at family functions, talking about his sports and letting us all know that "no one" could beat him at chess, dominos or spades! Kevin was loved and will be truly missed.

Kevin never had any children of his own but he fathered step-children that he loved dearly. Kevin was preceded in death by his father, Macon Gibbs; his mother, Cynthia Y. Kilgo; step-father, L. Sylvester Kilgo; and his brother, Charles Hughes, Sr.

He leaves to cherish his memories two brothers, Thomas Hughes and Adrian Gibbs (Tenika); two sisters, Sonya Whitney and Kimberly Gibbs; sister-in-law, Peggy Hughes; five nephews, Carlton Hughes, Jr., Adrian Whitney, Andrew Banks, Elijuah Gibbs and Adrian Gibbs, Jr.; three nieces, Carlotia Hughes, Monica Whitney and his favorite niece, Zandra Whitney; and a host of step-brothers, step-sisters, uncles, aunts, great-nephews, great-nieces, cousins and special friends.

“ I am sorry to hear of your loss. Death causes grief to us all. It will be a blessed time when death is gone forever. The bible tells us that the time is coming when death, sickness, and pain will be gone. (Revelations 21:3&4) It will truly be a wonderful time to not worry about death. Only Almighty God, thru His son, Jesus Christ, can bring about these conditions. Please accept my deepest sympathy and may your family be strengthened to endure at this time.
