

Kevin Williams III

October 23, 1992 - January 19, 2020

Kevin Lee Williams III, was born on Friday, October 23, 1992, to the late Kevin Lamont Williams and Charlotte Darlene Flamer, in Baltimore, Maryland. At the tender age of 27, he departed this life at the University of Maryland Shore Medical Center, in Easton, on Sunday, January 19, 2020.

Kevin graduated from North Caroline High School in 2011 and continued in the TTC program. While attending North High, he expressed an interest in band, tennis and the technology world. He loved video games and fishing. Kevin's one desire in life was to become a famous rapper of music.

Kevin was a member of Bells Chapel A.M.E. Church and was looking forward to playing the drums for the Lord.

After his father's death, the family looked upon Kevin as their father figure. Kevin was a good listener, helper and provider and would readily help you solve a problem. He always looked to the future. Kevin was a loving father to his son, Kcee Scott Williams.

Kevin was actively employed at Helen Todd Catering Service and Walmart Produce until his health slowed him down.

Kevin leaves to mourn his passing, his mother, Charlotte Flamer; son, Kcee

Scott Williams; brother, Lamont Williams; sister, Kevia Williams; aunts, Cheryl Flamer, Arlene Flamer, Johnice Williams and Rosie Shepherd; uncles, William Flamer, Kevin Williams and Gary Williams; a devoted friend, Chelsea Osborne; and a host of cousins and friends.
