

Kim Yvonne Ward

November 18, 1969 - December 23, 2021

Kim Yvonne Ward “Twinkles”, was born on November 18, 1969, to Delores E. Matthews and Orlando F. Matthews, in Wilmington, Delaware where she was raised and attended Howard High School in the Wilmington Public School System. She also studied Accounting at Delaware Technical Community College. She later moved to Atlanta, Georgia in 2002, where she continued to raise her two youngest children. She attended Gwinnett Technical College in Lawrenceville, Georgia. She enjoyed crafts, often making jewelry, candles and knitting.

Kim was preceded in death by both of her parents.

She leaves to cherish her memories, her husband, Lawrence H. Ward; three children, Charnique L. Selby, Zakiya N. Matthews, and Alkebulan H. Ward. Kim leaves three grandchildren, Amir Selby, Camren Selby, and Zariah Matthews. She also leaves one brother, Jonathan L. Urquhart (Monika) five sisters, Kathryn L. White, Angela M. Matthews (Alfred), Alanda E. Cyrus (Donald), Sharon Matthews, and Tamara Roberts. She also leaves her godson, Anthony T. White, Jr.; godmother, Sandra Teat and family; godmother, Leona Ellison; and a host of loving nieces, nephews and additional family.

Cemetery Details

Silverbrook Cemetery (Wilmington)

3300 Lancaster Pike
Wilmington, DE 19805

Tribute Wall

KK

“ To my Loving, Amazing, Strong; Aunt Kim. I love you always and forever. I'm so sorry I could not attend, but me and my Family sent the Divine peace bouquet in place of our family's absence. To my cousin and Uncle Hassan I love you all dearly, I'm praying for your strength, and I'm here always and forever ❤️ Love Keyonna Knight and family

---

Keyonna Knight - January 23, 2022 at 11:35 PM

TB

“ Dear sweet Sister Kim,

I have so many fond memories of you. I remember our conversations and the things we used to laugh about like it was just yesterday. I cherish those moments forever. It is my hope that one day we meet again. May you be at peace and your spirit live on in your children and grandchildren forever. My condolences and prayers to the family.

Tiffiney Butcher

---

Tiffiney Butcher - January 16, 2022 at 08:31 AM