

Knowles H. Hovington Jr.

April 24, 1945 - October 6, 2015

Knowles Henry Hovington, lovingly known as "Buddy" left this world and went home to be with the Lord on October 6, 2015. Though tears may flow, understand it is but a good thing, for we know that he is now in a new body, looking around at the glories of heaven.

Knowles was born on April 24, 1945 to Knowles and Mabel Hovington. He attended school in Millsboro and was in the last graduating class of William C. Jason Comprehensive High School. Knowles loved to work, though he had a visual impairment, he was always a dependable employee. He began his employment with H&H Poultry in Selbyville. In 1971, he left there and began employment at Blind Industries and Services of Maryland where he remained until his retirement on June 30, 2011. He was celebrated as a 40 year employee. He was honored for not being absent from work.

Always known for his quick wit and sense of humor, everyone enjoyed his comfort. He loved his fast cars, the Baltimore Orioles, of which he was a hardcore fan no matter how bad they might play, and the Pittsburg Steelers and watching westerns.

He was a dedicated friend. He and Preston Lee could often be found together racing cars; their friendship has spanned the years. Knowles was a family oriented person. He was a very loving, caring father and dedicated husband. He leaves to mourn his devoted wife of 37 years, Alice; seven children, April Toliver of Laurel; Anthony Hovington (Angie) of Washington, DC; Marjorie Wescott of Newark; Valerie Onley (Jay) of Salisbury; Lisa Feddiman, Laurel;

Niniya Hovington of Georgetown and Marcus Hovington of Dover; 13 grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; his sisters, Madge Knox (Manny) of Willingboro; Carol Dennis (Sam) of Millsboro, Mabel Warren (Gary) and one brother, Ronnie Hovington (Jane) of Georgetown; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and a whole mess of friends.
