“ I am sorry that you are grieving the loss of a dear loved one. I hope will be comforted by the resurrection promise(Acts 24:15) when Jesus will awaken those who are now sleeping in death(John 11:14)restoring them back to life, on the renewed Paradise earth.- John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43. Until that blessed event conspires and you are reunited with your loved one again, may you find peace and solace in GOD's love.-I John 4:8; Matthew 5:4.

“ Words of comfort:

Sample 1:

To The Family,

Please accept my condolence. I hope that you are able to draw comfort from the scriptures during this difficult time.

It mentions a time when all of humankind will have the privilege of reuniting with our loved ones who have fallen asleep in death. Jesus Christ's words at John 5:28, 29 assure us that such an exciting time will definitely take place.

Again, you have my deepest sympathy.

Sample 2:

Please accept my heartfelt sympathies for your loss. We all look forward to the near future when the earth will be a renewed paradise and Jesus hope inspiring words will be fulfilled: “Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out.”—John 5:28, 29.

Sample 3: Short Condolence:

Please accept my condolence. My heart goes out to you in your time of sorrow. I find comforting Job 14:14,15, which says, “If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning.”

Sample 4: Short presentation

To The Family,

Please accept my condolence. I hope that you are able to draw comfort from the scriptures during this difficult time. Let me tell you my favorite Bible text. “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life.”—John 5:28, 29.

Again, you have my sympathy.

Sample 5:

To the Family, Please accept my heartfelt sympathies for your loss. “Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people.” Isaiah 66:13.

Sample 6

To The Family,

Please accept my condolence. I hope that you are able to draw comfort from the scriptures during this difficult time. If you are grieving, maybe this will also help you. Matthew 22:32, Jesus quoted God as saying: 'I am the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob.' Then he continued: 'He is the God, not of the dead, but of the living.' I know that those words mean that those retained in God's memory and will return in the resurrection."

Sample 7-Short Presentation

Please accept my heartfelt sympathies for your loss. We all look forward to the near future when the earth will be a renewed paradise and death will be no more. (Rev 21:3,4)
