

LaMarr Tykee Hurst

March 8, 1986 - December 24, 2018

LaMarr Tykee Hurst, “Marr”, was called from this world on December 24, 2018. LaMarr was born in Seaford, Delaware. He started out early, bouncing the basketball and loved to play the game. LaMarr played in various leagues. He took Dover High School’s basketball team to the “Bob”, with a “3 pointier” shot in the last play-off game. He loved betting on sports, especially football.

LaMarr attended Caesar Rodney High School before graduating from Dover High School in the class of 2004. During his life, LaMarr worked various jobs. He enjoyed his family and was very protective of them. He also enjoyed hanging out with his large circle of friends.

At an early age, LaMarr accepted Christ as his Lord and Savior, at Cathedral of Faith.

LaMarr was preceded in death by his grandmothers, Peggy Palmer Murray and Virginia Barfield.

LaMarr’s spirit is carried on by his daughter, Shamyia B. Hurst; father, James Knox; mother, Della R. Hurst; stepmother, Sylvia Knox; two brothers, Deshawn Benson and James Gibbs; sisters, Ashley Benson and Monique Cannon; stepfather, Garrett Benson; stepson, Jamez; grandparents, Clifford and Angeline Hurst; aunts, Antonia “Chica” Hurst and Arberdella “Judy” Hurst; stepsisters, Darnella, Claudia and Iesha; significant other, TaShiena Tingle, all of his homies and his barber, "Check"; and a number of other family members. LaMarr will be remembered by his family and friends, as a loving, loyal and outgoing individual.

Lovingly Submitted,

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."
