

Lamont Levi Horsey

September 30, 1954 - February 7, 2019

Obituary

Lamont Horsey was born on September 30, 1954 in Salisbury, MD to Minnie Stanley and the late Samuel Horsey.

He received his early education at Salisbury Elementary, now Chipman Elementary, and in Salisbury High, now Salisbury Middle School.

Lamont moved away to Texas and later migrated to California, where he went to college and was certified to drive "Big Rigs." He spent 20 years in Los Angeles driving trucks until his health began to fail, and this resulted in him moving back home.

His favorite quote was:

"Live & Let Live, Praise The Lord!"

Lamont is survived by his mother, Minnie Smith, 5 sisters; Lillie Wilson, of Bronx, New York, Catherine (Rossi) Bratten, Melanie (Roy) Turner, Cheryl (James) Beckwith, all of Salisbury, Maryland, and Sandra (Calvin) Taylor, of Pottstown, Pennsylvania, one brother; Samuel Horsey, Jr. and one brother; Alfred Stanly, who preceded him in death. A host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ I knew Lamont as a neighbor at Riverside Homes. I remember we ran into each other at walmart one day and shared a cab ride home. We would see each other in the dayroom or doing laundry and have a pleasant conversation. I was sad when I learned of his passing . Please accept my sincere sympathy.
