

Larry Cannon

February 13, 1956 - September 13, 2014

Larry Eugene Cannon, known as "Lubba", was born on Monday, February 13, 1956 to the late Charles Nichols and Sarah Elizabeth Cannon. He departed this life on Saturday, September 13, 2014 at his home.

Larry was given his nickname "Lubba" by his neighborhood friends and family. Lubba received his formal education at Howard T. Ennis School in Georgetown, Delaware. He worked for Bobby Myers and Jim Hitchens Stables in Greenwood, Delaware where he groomed horses until he retired. Lubba was known for his hard work and dedication that he provided for his neighborhood.

At an early age, Lubba joined his family church, Trinity United Methodist Church and attended until its closure. Then, he joined Mt. Calvary United Methodist Church in Bridgeville, Delaware. In his spare time, he enjoyed listening to the Duck Man radio show, Family Feud, Lassie, The Rifleman and watching WBOC Channel 6 News everyday. Lubba also loved watching his favorite football team the Dallas Cowboys.

Before his health failed, Lubba's passion was to ride his bike throughout Bridgeville and Greenwood.

He was preceded in death by one brother, Thomas Cannon. Lubba is survived by two sisters, Lorraine (Leon) Smith of Bridgeville, Delaware and Delphine (James) Cannon of Felton, Delaware; and three brothers: Richard (Eileen) Cannon of Bridgeville, Delaware; Merle (Lisa) Cannon of Bridgeville, Delaware and Wayne (Gail) Cannon of Bridgeville, Delaware and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ To the Family and Friends of Larry Cannon,

Please accept my heartfelt condolences. It is always painful to lose a loved one;

I also have lost many dear ones to death.

God's son Jesus promised a resurrection in John 5:28, 29.

Imagine enjoying life with Larry once again, right here on earth, forever. -Psalm 37:11, 29.

May you find comfort, gain hope at this time, and seek the answer to: 'When will sickness, suffering and death end?'. -Revelation 21:4

Sincerely,

Marlis - September 16, 2014 at 12:00 AM
