

Larry Vincent Taylor

May 21, 1950 - June 3, 2019

Larry V. Taylor, “No. 7” & “Tee Cob”, was born on May 21, 1950, in Wilmington, Delaware. He was the son of the late Rayfield Leon Taylor Sr., and Annie Eliza Wilson Taylor.

Larry departed this life on June 3, 2019, at home, at the age of 69.

Larry received his early education at #29 School and graduated from Howard High School in Wilmington, Delaware, in June 1969. Larry was a great athlete during his school years. He excelled in football and basketball and was a great bowler.

Larry was a great people person. He was also a stylish dresser. He loved his family and was raised in a Christian home. In his early childhood years, he attended the old Ezion Methodist Church and in later years, he became a faithful member of Manna Christian Fellowship Church, until his illness.

Larry worked for St. Francis Hospital as a Security Guard, Star Building Services Inc. as a Supervisor and he also worked for Floor Coating, Inc. as a floor technician, which gave him the opportunity to travel abroad to China to train others for that particular type of skill.

Larry was predeceased by his parents, Rayfield Leon Taylor, Sr. and Annie Eliza Wilson Taylor; and siblings, Leonard E. Taylor, Louis M. Taylor, Sharon J.

Taylor, Joyce A. Taylor, Rayfield L. Taylor, Jr., Calvin L. Taylor, Sr., Ronald Phillips, John Taylor (Geraldine) and three infant sisters.

Larry leaves to cherish his memory, siblings, William E. Taylor, Sr. (Beatrice), Oliver C. Taylor, Sr. (Wanda), Dennis M. Taylor, Sr. (Deborah), Mary E. Fields, Christine A. Taylor, Thelma L. Taylor, Dorothy J. Taylor-Thompson and Sarah M. Taylor-Williams; a host of nieces, nephews and, many friends; a special friend, Ms. Dorothy; and a special nephew, Leonard Taylor.

“ So sorry to hear of your loss. As the days go pass may you experience the love of our heavenly Creator, Jehovah God as he strengthen you and your family to get through this trying time.
(Psalms 83:18) Remember he loves your loved one also and has promised to get rid of sickness and death forever and by means of his son Jesus Christ, bring back to life our loved ones. (Revelation 21:4; John 5:28,29)Please accept my deepest condolences.jw.org---
