

Larry William Thompson

March 16, 1961 - October 23, 2025

Larry William Thompson, fondly known as “Pig Man,” was the son of Laura Mae Jackson and the late Thomas Thompson, Sr. He gained his wings at the age of sixty-four (64) on October 23, 2025, peacefully at home.

Born on March 16, 1961 Larry was educated in the public schools of Dorchester County, Maryland. After obtaining his General Education Diploma (GED) in 1978, Larry enlisted in the United States Army on August 9, 1979 and was honorably discharged on June 15, 1984.

Larry worked at B&G, Black & Decker and other various jobs. He enjoyed watching his wrestling, playing his numbers and going to the casino. Larry loved spending time with his family playing cards and showing off every thing on Facebook. He always posted his nice rides, the finest restaurants, his money and giving you an insight of how he lived life. He was always big on family, from the BBQ reunions to being the life of the party. Larry stood on business and told you like it was straight up. He kept it real and was a man of his word.

Larry leaves to cherish fond memories: his fiancée, Tee Thompson; his mother, Laura Mae Jackson (Bernard); two sisters, Ida Mae Stanley (Sylvester) and Mildred Ann Thompson (Leaon); two brothers, Thomas Thompson, Jr. and Fabian Jackson; five nieces, Cheryl Singleton, Salena

Thompson, Veronica Thompson, Patricia Thompson and Keyon Cooper (Tobias); one nephew, Lamar Marshall and a host of great nieces and great nephews, cousins and friends.

Larry was preceded in death by his father, Thomas Thompson, Sr. and his sister, Joyce Ann Thompson.
