October 30, 1984 - March 31, 2023

LATASHIA RENEE BLAKE'S JOURNEY

Latashia Renee Blake, known as “Tasha” by family and friends, was the oldest beloved daughter of Patricia Fletcher and Winifred Blake. Born on October 30, 1984 at Peninsula Regional Medical Center in Salisbury, Maryland, she received her heavenly wings on Friday, March 31, 2023.

Tasha was outgoing, vibrant and a very outspoken person. In her youth, she attended Apostle Tabernacle in Westover, Maryland. She loved her family and friends and sitting down together eating seafood, one of her favorites being crabs. Tasha had a bold personality and a rap style of her own about life in general.

Tasha was a proud mother of three beautiful daughters, La’kya Dickerson, Jakerra Baines and Kennedy Foreman. She always had a smile on her face and a laugh that we will never forget. No matter what was going on or what she was going through she always said, “God’s got me!”

She leaves to cherish precious memories: her three daughters, La’Kya, Jakerra and Kennedy; her god-son Karon Nixon; her mother, Patricia (Marvin) Fletcher; her father, Winifred Blake; two siblings, her brother, Christopher

Pittman and sister, Ashley Blake; three uncles, Jamieson and Kenneth Pittman and Desmond Roberts; aunts, Stephanie Pittman, Teresa Chavis, and Betty, Susan, Lillian and Mary Blake; two nieces; two nephews and one very close friend, Gina Holden.

Tasha was preceded in death by: one sister, Tawanda Blake; three uncles, Lester Pittman, Jr., Leon Blake, Jr. and Nicholas Pittman; one aunt, Patricia Wise; her paternal grandparents, Leon and Lavana Blake; maternal grandfather, Lester Pittman, Sr. and godmom, Kathy Collins.
