“ To the Beam Family: Please accept my sincere condolences regarding your great loss Soon we will be asking, death where is your sting? God has promised: "Death will be no more neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore."

“ To the Beam Family: Life is like a candle, we light, glow brightly for a little while then fade away. Many love ones are left behind to mourn the loss of one who glowed so brightly and was loved so dearly. May the resurrection hope bring you comfort during your time of great sorrow. 1 John 5:28,29
